BEGINNING LATIN II

BULLETIN INFORMATION

LATN 110 - Beginning Latin II (3 credit hours)

Course Description:

Introduction to grammar and practical vocabulary necessary for fundamental reading skills. Admission to 110 restricted to those who have completed LATN 109. Credit may not be received for both 109/110 and 121.

Prerequisites: LATN 109

SAMPLE COURSE OVERVIEW

Latin 110, a continuation of Latin 109, is designed to offer you structured, sustained practice in reading and analysis of basic Latin, as well as structured analysis of basic elements of the English language. The course will provide classroom instruction, followed by outside assignments designed to solidify concepts learned in class.

ITEMIZED LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of Latin 110 students will be able to:

1. Translate more complex Latin sentences; understand the passive voice and some basic uses of the subjunctive mood;
2. Recite differing forms of words, with the understanding of what each form means;
3. Hear and respond to basic commands and short expressions;
4. Read with understanding longer paragraphs written in Latin; read select unmodified Latin passages.
5. Continue exploring the relationship between the Latin language and the Roman cultural context, as well as the impact of both on western civilization
