Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been selected for review in a process called verification. Before we may offer or disburse federal student aid to you, we must verify your identity.

Please appear in person at your campus Financial Aid Office with your unexpired, valid, government-issued photo ID. A Financial Aid Counselor will verify your identity and make a copy of your ID that will be held in your financial aid record.

- Acceptable identification includes your state issued driver's license or other state-issued ID, or your passport. An ID issued by a state university or college or a military ID are NOT accepted identification for this process.
- If you are unable to appear in person, present your identification to a notary to be acknowledged in the notary statement on the back of this form.
