

American (Jewish) Humor in an Era of Ethnic Sensitivity and Cultural Competence: Intersections of Religion, Race, Ethnicity, and Gender

SATURDAY EVENING

MONDAY MORNING

April 28 through April 30

- Screening of “The Last Laugh”, a documentary on Holocaust Humor, with a talk by the filmmaker Ferne Pearlstein
- A lecture by Bob Mankoff (Humor and Cartoon Editor, Esquire), “#MeTooSoon: Finding the Funny in Sexual Misconduct”
- Talks by Christian Anderson (U of South Carolina), Regina Barreca (U of Connecticut), Joe Boskin (Boston U), Federica Clementi (U of South Carolina), Joseph Dorinson (Long Island U), Lanita Jacobs (U of Southern California), Russell Kaschula (Rhodes U), Rebecca Krefting (Skidmore Coll), Lawrence Mintz (U of Maryland), Lauren Sklaroff (U of South Carolina), David Slucki (Coll of Charleston), Jarrold Tanny (U of North Carolina at Wilmington), and Stephen Whitfield (Brandeis U)

Film screening and keynote lecture at Gambrell 153; Conference talks at Campus Room in Capstone.
Find out more:

https://www.sc.edu/study/colleges_schools/artsandsciences/jewish_studies/beyond_the_classroom/humor_conference/

Major sponsors:

Tom and Sherrill Knobel Hall
USC Jewish Studies Program
USC Office of the Vice President for Research
South Carolina Humanities Council
South Carolina Council on the Holocaust
Columbia Jewish Federation

