

Children's Law Center
School of Law
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

The Child Maltreatment and Juvenile Justice Connection: Delinquency Prevention Through Resilience Development (Recorded Webinar)

A S.C. Children's Justice Act Task Force training initiative

Who should attend: Volunteer guardians ad litem, DSS staff, DJJ staff, youth providers, school counselors, community stakeholders, and foster and adoptive parents

Overview: This training will provide an overview of South Carolina's juvenile justice system and explore the dynamics behind why abused or neglected youth are more likely to become delinquent. Topics will include the prevalence of and risk factors associated with juvenile justice and child welfare involvement and the role of complex trauma. The training will also cover best practices and current efforts that effectively serve these youth and their families.

Fee: There is no charge for this training.

Continuing Education Credits: There will be no continuing education credit offered for this recorded webinar.

For more information and to access a link to this recorded webinar: Contact Rebecca Carney by email at carneyr@mailbox.sc.edu.